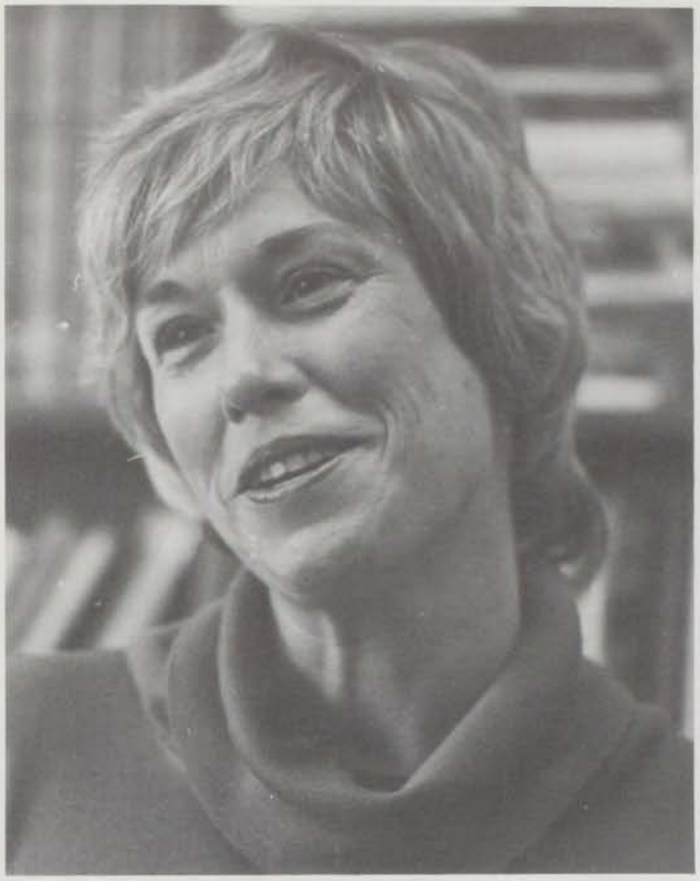
COOL CLARK



Anne Freers, Superintendent

What are your impressions of the Aspen School System?

I feel it is one of the most unique in the country with strong working relationships between the students and faculty. I have also been impressed by the diversity of activities available to the students, i.e., academic, vocational, and extracurricular. I see room for even better things to happen in the future.

Comment on your year as Principal at Aspen High School.

Together we made it happen! With lots of cooperation and with students and teachers taking responsibility for almost everything, we had a great year full of fun, laughter, a bit of chaos, and lots of hard work.

I'm not only appreciative of all the support and help, I'm very proud of our year, and I give full credit to the students and the staff.

BEHIND US ALL

Eating European pastries again!

Last summer was full of events. The summer began with softball/baseball season starting. Many Aspen students went abroad to Europe on Summer Sail. They traveled through southern Europe for four weeks sight-seeing, and sailed the French Riviera about two weeks. Tim Comstock organized and lead the trip for the fifth consecutive year.

Beth Fergus sponsored a trip for Aspen students: Bleeker Street Mountaineering. That was the third summer Aspen students went on this program. The group worked for the city for a week before the trip to, in a sense, pay for the program. They spent the first part of their trip rafting on the Green river for about seven days. One day was spent rock climbing on Independence Pass, and the last three days the group climbed Grizzly Peak.

The summer ended with a senior breakfast put on for the Julie McLain Memorial Fund. Julie would have been a senior this year, but she died in a car accident this summer. The Memorial Fund will be put into a scholarship for the graduating class this year.

The American field service (AFS) program was taken by four Aspen High Students last summer, and this school year Michael Goodwin came from Australia to Aspen. The four students that went abroad were Eric Brendlinger, Mindy Lipton, Kamala Marsh, and Anne Pausbeck. Eric spent the summer in Sweden, Mindy in Peru, Kamala in Turkey, and Anne in Greece. All the students had a great time and would encourage anyone to try the AFS program.

Many AHS students went on the Young Life Castaway trip. Last summer the Castaway trip took place at Lake Pelican, Minnesota. The students enjoyed many activities such as para-sailing, water skiing, sailing, and a small amount of activities dealing with religion.

Autumn is when the leaves turn gold and you know it is time to go back to school. Homecoming is always the major fall activity and this year was no exception. The senior float won the float contest, and they received enough points to win the week. Second place went to the juniors, then sophomores, and last place was freshmen. The homecoming King and Queen candidates were Lori Kass, Gina Lynch, Stephanie Stapleton, Kris Bloomquist, Eric Brenlinger, Lance Clark, Steve Fitzgerald, and Jeff Gerbaz. Lori Kass and Eric Brendlinger were the King and Queen.

Later this fall was the annual Community Center Carnival. The senior class built a booth for throwing pies at your favorite teacher. No other class built a booth.

"Any Time You're Ready Mr. Freed"

The Christmas spirit was high in Aspen High this year. All classes took part in decorating the halls. The Freshmen received first, followed by the Sophomores, Seniors, and then the Junior in last place.

The One Act plays were a success. All the plays were directed by students at AHS. Tina Rhinehart directed "Any Time You're Ready Mr. Freed", which was a play within a play. Edmond Shapiro directed "The Chess Game", which was a serious drama. And "Fog on the Bay", a mystery drama, was directed by Tony Hershey.

A Foggy Day in London Town.

Oh, it's just a BOMB.

This winter Aspen High celebrated the first annual Snowweek. Snowweek, a take off on homecoming, was designed to honor the basketball players, put on by the cheerleaders and student senate. Wednesday was Hawaiian day, Thursday was Crazy or Punk day, and Friday was School Colors day. A Pep rally was held Fiday afternoon followed by a coed basketball game and a dance Friday night. Twenty-five dollars was awarded to the Senior class for winning the week. The Sophomores finished the week with three points, the Juniors with nine, Freshmen with ten, and the Seniors with eleven. The first annual Snowweek seemed to be a success.

The winter play this year was the Woody Allen production, "Don't Drink the Water". The play was about an American family trapped in a communist country's American embassy, and accused of being spies. The play stared Jeff Edmonds, Michelle Weissman, Darby Laswell, and Bobby Burson; others in the cast were Matt Thurman, Eric Pielstick, Todd Wilkinson, Jeff Winagle, Jack Wheeler, Stephanie Lull, Jessica Auster, Cory Bruening, Tom Alpern, and Matt Haley. The play was directed by Marcia Brendlinger, and the assistant director was George Burson.

With the first Snowweek and the success of the play, Aspen High School had a better than average winter.

Come on Michelle, give me a break!

This is ridiculous!

God, do I need a drink!

The Aspen High School Student Senate, under the organization of Student Body President Marshall Hall, has contributed a lot to the year by raising and spending money on various functions to improve, provide, and organize the student body with the many successful projects it has completed. Some of the projects planned for this year were the Homecoming Dance, Student Lounge, the Christmas Day events, Muscular Distrophy fund raising ski day, and field day. Their enthusiasm and hard work is a successful student government at work.

Basketball Cheerleaders

Who's the best? It's AHS!!

The cheerleaders for the Aspen High School sports have put a lot of hard work into supporting our athletes, and promoting spirit among the students. Some of the projects that they have worked on this year are the organization of homecoming week, the selling of mums, pep club, and pep assemblies. It is their enthusiasm and participation that has helped to give our school the pride and success we have.

Aspen High School Speech And Debate

The members of the Aspen High School Speech and Debate Team spend many hours preparing for a meet by collecting evidence, writing scripts, and in the end practicing them. This year the team has put an extra effort into dedicating their year to Julie McLain, and to following the positive examples she showed the team.

Included in a Speech and Debate meet are the Debates, Duet Acting Rounds, Original Oratory, Interpretation of Drama, humor, and Poetry, and Extempts. The team has participated in various meets in Colorado including the first meet ever held here in Aspen at the beginning of the year.

FBLA- Future Business Leaders of America is an organization that helps students to understand the business world. During the weekly meetings members follow parlimentary procedure in discussing business events. In February the members attend district and participate in business events such as typing, accounting, stenography, and business math. The first, second, and third places at district go on to state in March. Fund raisers such as dances, bake sales, and the selling of yearbook ads help the group to go on business trips where they visit and learn from various businesses.

Captain S. Fitzgerald

The Aspen Skiers finished with a 4-3-1 record and tied for 4th place in the always tough Northwestern League. The team had only 31 participants for the 1980 season but had 8 returning starters from the last years squad. The Skiers had an explosive offense that could strike at any time, this included a strong offensive line. Although having a power house offense the Skiers lacked defense and enthusiasm yielding 21 points a game. Aspen opened its rough schedule with a win over Basalt 20-14 then dropped to Glenwood 38-12 after a close 3 quarters, Aspen quickly rebounded with a win over Roaring Fork 32-8, and then fell to Rifle 38-21 and Steamboat 36-6 to end their playoff hopes. Aspen then returned home for their last home game and split with Meeker 6-6, the Skiers finished with two wins on the road against Rangely 21-6 and Battle Mountain 25-20. Lance Clark made the all-state team, and Aspen placed four men on the all-conference team: Lance Clark, Mike Kelley, and Jeff Gerbaz on offense and Paul Popish on defense. Four Skiers also made honorable mention: Steve Fitzgerald, Paul Kienast, Terry Conner, and Ole Westerlind.

Aspen Skiers Volleyball finished with a 20-2 record and sat alone at the top of the Northwestern league which Aspen dominated with a 7-0 record. Aspen swept the sub-district tournament defeating Rangely in the semi-finals in two games, and then breezed past Rifle and into the championship against arch rival Eagle Valley, defeating them in two games. Aspen led the the all-league selections with four members: Seniors Leslee Francis and Jennifer Gibbons and Juniors Carmen Farr and Sarah Carlson, with Janet Myers receiving honorable mention honors. Aspen passed up Paonia in district and was on their way to state ranked #1, with a 19-0 record. In the first round, Aspen defeated Machebeuf in two, but fell to defending state champs, Brush, in a close three games. Later that day, Aspen played Valley for third place, loosing only their second game of the season and ending their season fourth in the state. 1980 was the most successful season ever for Aspen High Volleyball.

CROSS COUNTRY

Coach Cathy Chaloupka

1980 was one of the best seasons yet for the Aspen High School Cross Country team. The girls team captured the league championship in a race that wasn't decided until the last runners crossed the finish line, and the boy's ran to second place in another close finish. Five girls and five boys competed in the state meet, the girls were 5th, and the boys brought back 11th place. The people who went to state were: Annie Richardson, Annie Pausback, Zoe Alderfer, Jill Anderson, Lizzy Pausback, Nick Luper, Svein Nostahl, Mike Kienast, Ranjeet Grewal, and Rafael BenYehuda.
