Zupancis Collection

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Number: 2004.011
Title: Zupancis
Creator: Zupancis/Callahan/Homeyer
Media: Papers, photographs, furniture, clothing, miscellaneous objects

SCOPE AND CONTENTS OF THE COLLECTION

This collection was taken from a house that was originally owned by the Zupancis family and later was purchased by the city of Aspen. The City of Aspen then donated the contents of the house to the Aspen Historical Society. The curator (Sarah Oates) went through the house and took items that she felt would enhance the collection of the historical society.

The items span from the late 1800's to the 1970's. Most objects from the late 1800's to about the 1950's belong to the Zupancis/Callahan family. The items from the Zupancis/Callahan families consist of WWI artifacts, miscellaneous objects ranging from the early 1900's to the mid 1900's, personal and business correspondences, other archival materials pertaining to The Mesa Store owned by the Zupancis family, and Tomkins Hardware which was owned by the Callahan family.

The items from the 1970's are from the former Mayor of Aspen, Eve Homeyer. Materials in the Eve Homeyer series, consists of archival materials dealing with her business The House of Ireland, travel receipts and plane tickets and a few personal correspondences.

ORGANIZATION OF THE COLLECTION

The Zupancis Collection consists of three series. Series I contains all archival materials relating to Eve Homeyer organized into folders of like items. Series II contains all archival material relating to both the Zupancis and Callahan families organized into folders of like items.
